23rd Bible Convention at KD Jola Parish, Andhra Pradesh

Theme: Evangelization

KD Jola, Andhra Pradesh: The Word of God is alive and active among the Savara tribe. The Savara Bible Soba originally was started by Rev. Fr. Joseph Mulan, CM in 1997 to strengthen their faith and from then onwards the Savara speaking parishes have taken the responsibility of organizing it each year in different parishes. This bible soba which is meant for the Savara speaking parishes begins every year soon after the Ash Wednesday as a preparation for the Easter when our Lord defeats the death by rising. These Savara parishes widely spread in Srikakulam, Rayagada, and Bharampur Dioceses. This year 2020, Montfort Missionaries staying at the Shantinagar Mission community took the initiative to conduct 23rd Bible Convention at Chintamanuguda village, KD Jola Parish, Srikakulam Diocese in Andhra Pradesh. This Bible Convention was organized from 27-02-2020 to 01-3-2020 for the spiritual nourishment of the Savara faithful, coming from Andhra Pradesh and Odisha under the guidance of the Shepherds of the Catholic Church.

There were more than twenty thousand people attended this Bible Convention from Sixteen parishes.

It was well organized by the committee members especially Rev. Fr. Kiran and Fr. T. Ravi in collaboration with the supervisors, catechists and faithful from both Shantinagar and KD Jola parishes to help the people have a deep spiritual God-fearing experience at the beginning of Lent to celebrate the Easter worthily. During four days the Holy Mass was live telecasted on Divyavaani Channel. We express our sincere gratitude to God, all departments and people who have helped us in one way or the other to organize it successfully. We concluded it by giving glory to God for His countless blessings.
